

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE February 21, 2007
CONTACT: Jared Cordes

(202) 225-5235

BOYD RECEIVES CIRCLE OF GOLD AWARD AT FSU

TALLAHASSEE-In addition to being one of Florida State University's most prominent alumni, U.S. Rep.

With Boyd's help, the consortium, which includes FSU, the University of Florida, the University of Miami,

Today, Boyd was honored by his alma mater for all of his efforts on its behalf when the FSU Alumni Ass

The award came as a surprise to Boyd, who had just finished a tour of FSU's Center for Advanced Power

Both FSU officials and Boyd's own staff had kept him in the dark until the end of the tour, when he found

"I am so honored to receive this prestigious award from my alma mater," Boyd said. "Florida State Unive

"I also want to say a special thanks to my friend, President T.K. Wetherell,for his dedication to the stude

Boyd, a Monticello resident and fifth-generation farmer, earned his bachelor's degree in business from F

CAPS was established at FSU in 2000 as a hub of research and educational activities promoting the dev

"Modernizing our nation's power grid is a major key to U.S. competitiveness and security over the next c

Barry Adams, the director of FSU's Alumni Association, described Boyd as "one of the university's most

"For years, Allen Boyd has been a tireless advocate for greater science funding for America's universities

To learn more about the Center for Advanced Power Systems, visit

-30-